

BA's Best Piña Colada

May 20, 2022

Ingredients

Makes 4 Servings

½ fresh pineapple, peeled, cut into 1 ½" pieces

6 oz. sweetened cream of coconut (preferably Coco López)

2 oz. unsweetened coconut milk

8 oz. white rum

2 Tbsp. fresh lime juice

2 oz. dark rum (optional)

Maraschino cherries and lime wedges (for serving)

Preparation

Step 1

Place pineapple pieces in a resealable plastic bag, laying them flat. Freeze until solid, at least 3 hours.

Step 2

Shake cream of coconut and coconut milk in their cans before measuring. Purée pineapple, cream of coconut, coconut milk, white rum, lime juice, and 3 cups ice (about 15 oz.) in a blender until smooth. Transfer blender cup to freezer and freeze until mixture is thickened (it should be the consistency of a milkshake), 25–35 minutes.

Step 3

Blend again until mixture is the perfect slushy frozen drink consistency. Divide among glasses. Top off each with ½ oz. dark rum, if using, and garnish each with a cherry and lime wedge.

Do Ahead: Pineapple can be chopped 3 months ahead. Keep frozen.
